The jury and selection of winning artworks

The jury comprises 6 members:

- Leonardo Rial, artist and director of the Asociación Taller Experimental de Obra Múltiple Contemporánea (Spain)
- Néstor Goyanes, print maker and arts promoter (Argentina)
- Weronika Siupka, winner of the First Prize at the 1st International Mini Print Galicia 2022-2023 (Poland)
- Xoán Pastor Rodríguez, Director of the Museo do Gravado de Artes, Ribeira (Galicia, Spain)
- Maite Meixide, winner of the Galicia Special Award at the 1st International Mini Print Galicia 2022-2023 (Spain)

The jury will deliberate in the Asociación Taller Experimental de Obra Múltiple Contemporánea and will take into account only the works that meet all the specifications as outlined above. Any works submitted that do not meet the specifications will not be taken into account and will not be returned.

The jury's decision is final and will be published on www.miniprint-galicia.gal. The winning artists will also be notified by email.

Works exhibition places

Opening:

Cangas do Morrazo Council (Spain): 6 September - 5 October 2024, at the Casa da Cultura de Cangas, at 8 pm.

From 6th October to 6th December the works will be exhibited in different venues yet to be confirmed.

Catalogue:

50 catalogues will be printed and delivered to the awarded artists, the jury members and the collaborating organizations and institutions.

The catalogue will be emailed to all participants in low resolution and it will also be available on our website www.miniprint-galicia.gal for a free download in high resolution.

The information provided in the registration form will be used as the artist's entry in the catalogue.

Return of artwork

Non-winning artists who have requested the return of their artworks and have paid the relevant participation fee will be sent the works by Registered Mail (Correos de España) from the date 6th December. The return address will be that which is given on the registration form-

It is important to communicate any change of address between the date of the artwork's delivery and the end of the competition. If a package is returned to the organisation, participants will be notified by email and can inform us of a new delivery address. Please note that if any artworks need to be mailed a second time, the participant will have to pay the additional postage fee.

Participation Guidelines

By 31st July 2024, each artist should:

1. Fill out the registration form online.
2. Pay the relevant participation fee, depending on whether the artwork is for donation or to be returned.
3. Send by registered mail: the participant's works, a printed copy of the registration form and receipt of payment.

4. Initial receipt of artworks will not be acknowledged. Winning and highly commended artists will be notified by email and the results will also be published on our website.

The Asociación Taller Experimental de Obra Múltiple Contemporánea reserves the right to reproduce the submitted works for promotional and cultural purposes.

Although maximum care will be taken of the submitted artworks, the organisers assume no responsibility for any damage, loss, delay or customs retention that may occur during the delivery or running of the exhibition.

In the case of any other unexpected events the organisers reserve the right to decide the final outcome.

All participants must agree to and abide by these terms and conditions.
